Case No. 4:24-mj-257-2

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIALPart I - Eligibility for Detention

Upon the

- ☐ Motion of the Government attorney pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), or ☒ Motion of the Government or Court's own motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2), the Court held a detention hearing and found that detention is warranted. This order sets forth the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), in addition to any other findings made at the hearing.

Part II - Findings of Fact and Law as to Presumptions under § 3142(e)

☐ A. Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2) (previous violator): There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community because the following conditions have been met:

☐ (1) the defendant is charged with one of the following crimes described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1):

☐ (a) a crime of violence, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1591, or an offense listed in 18 U.S.C.

§ 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed; or

☐ (b) an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death; or

☐ (c) an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501-70508); or

☐ (d) any felony if such person has been convicted of two or more offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph, or two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in subparagraphs (a) through (c) of this paragraph if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed, or a combination of such offenses; or

☐ (e) any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence but involves:

(i) a minor victim; (ii) the possession of a firearm or destructive device (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921); (iii) any other dangerous weapon; or (iv) a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250; and

☐ (2) the defendant has previously been convicted of a Federal offense that is described in 18 U.S.C.

§ 3142(f)(1), or of a State or local offense that would have been such an offense if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed; and

☐ (3) the offense described in paragraph (2) above for which the defendant has been convicted was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a Federal, State, or local offense; and

- ☐ (4) a period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction, or the release of the defendant from imprisonment, for the offense described in paragraph (2) above, whichever is later.
- ☐ B. Rebuttable Presumption Arises Under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3) (narcotics, firearm, other offenses): There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community because there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed one or more of the following offenses:
- ☐ (1) an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed in the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 801-904), the Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. §§ 951-971), or Chapter 705 of Title 46, U.S.C. (46 U.S.C. §§ 70501-70508);
 - ☐ (2) an offense under 18 U.S.C. §§ 924(c), 956(a), or 2332b;
 - ☐ (3) an offense listed in 18 U.S.C. § 2332b(g)(5)(B) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 10 years or more is prescribed;
 - ☐ (4) an offense under Chapter 77 of Title 18, U.S.C. (18 U.S.C. §§ 1581-1597) for which a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years or more is prescribed; or
 - ☐ (5) an offense involving a minor victim under 18 U.S.C. §§ 1201, 1591, 2241, 2242, 2244(a)(1), 2245, 2251, 2251A, 2252(a)(1), 2252(a)(2), 2252(a)(3), 2252A(a)(1), 2252A(a)(2), 2252A(a)(3), 2252A(a)(4), 2260, 2421, 2422, 2423, or 2425.

☐ C. Conclusions Regarding Applicability of Any Presumption Established Above

- ☐ The defendant has not introduced sufficient evidence to rebut the presumption above, and detention is ordered on that basis.

OR

- ☐ The defendant has presented evidence sufficient to rebut the presumption, but after considering the presumption and the other factors discussed below, detention is warranted.

Part III - Analysis and Statement of the Reasons for Detention

After considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) and the information presented at the detention hearing, the Court concludes that the defendant must be detained pending trial because the Government has proven:

- ☐ By clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community.
- ☒ By a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required.

In addition to any findings made on the record at the hearing, the reasons for detention include the following:

- ☒ Weight of evidence against the defendant is strong
- ☒ Subject to lengthy period of incarceration if convicted
- ☒ Prior criminal history
- ☐ Participation in criminal activity while on probation, parole, or supervision
- ☐ History of violence or use of weapons
- ☐ History of alcohol or substance abuse
- ☒ Lack of stable employment
- ☐ Lack of stable residence

- ☐ Lack of financially responsible sureties
- ☐ Lack of significant community or family ties to this district
- ☐ Significant family or other ties outside the United States
- ☐ Lack of legal status in the United States
- ☐ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
- ☐ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered
- ☒ Prior attempt(s) to evade law enforcement
- ☐ Use of alias(es) or false documents
- ☒ Background information unknown or unverified
- ☐ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

Defendant James Tracie's prior conduct, coupled with the nature and circumstances of the charged offenses and his refusal to promptly surrender upon arrest, create a risk of non-appearance that no condition or combination of conditions can adequately address. Defendant's prior arrests include troubling offenses for being a fugitive and hindering apprehension of another fugitive. The Government also presented evidence that Defendant sent a text message in March 2021 indicating that he would flee to Europe to avoid facing the consequences of his alleged fraudulent Paycheck Protection Program scheme. The fact that Defendant now faces a significant potential term of imprisonment increases the likelihood that he would flee. And Defendant's own statements show that he has the financial means to flee, as he asserted in a text message from 2021 that he has procured $600,000 through the conspiracy.

Equally troubling is Defendant's failure to promptly surrender when confronted by law enforcement attempting to effectuate his arrest. Uncontroverted evidence reflects that an entire team of U.S. Marshals and other law enforcement repeatedly knocked and announced themselves. Their commands were ignored, forcing them to breach the door and break windows in the home to obtain a better view of Defendant. After Defendant's wife and two of his children ultimately descended from the upstairs bedroom, law enforcement again repeatedly ordered Defendant to come downstairs. When he finally appeared at the top of the stairs, he was carrying his two-month-old baby. Law enforcement repeatedly ordered him to set the baby down before descending, but he failed to do so. Only after a stand-off did Defendant finally descend and was arrested.

Although Defendant insists that he did not wish to leave the baby unattended alone upstairs, his standoff with law enforcement created a danger that could easily have been averted had he complied with the Marshals' and other officers' instructions. Indeed, authorities in Galveston have charged Defendant with child endangerment stemming from his conduct during the arrest. More broadly, Defendant's failure to comply with law enforcement instructions, even when that failure put his own child in harm's way, undermines the Court's confidence that he would comply with directives of pretrial services or other conditions of release.

Defendant's proposal to have his wife serve as his third-party custodian is inadequate to remedy the Court's concerns that he would failure to appear. Statements from Defendant's wife reflect serious inconsistencies. Whereas Defendant claimed he lived at the address in Texas City, Texas, where he was arrested, his wife told pre-trial services that Defendant lives with his mother in Amitie, Louisiana. Despite being married to Defendant for several years, she could not corroborate Defendant's current income or asserted employment. Moreover, Defendant's wife also failed to promptly comply with law enforcement orders to open the door the morning of his arrest. The Court has no confidence that she would police Defendant's conduct or even notify pretrial services of any non-compliance with conditions of release. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Defendant James Tracie be DETAINED pending trial.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
